

Ms. Lesley Slaughter

Office of the Assistant G-1 for Civilian Personnel, Headquarters, Department of the Army

Employee Relations Specialist

Biography:

Ms. Slaughter is an Employee Relations Specialist with the Labor and Employee Relations Division (LERD) at the Office of the Assistant G-1 for Civilian Personnel (AG-1CP), where she has worked since 2016. Ms. Slaughter's has responsibility for developing management/employee relations policy and guidance for the Department of the Army Civilian workforce. Ms. Slaughter's assigned programs of responsibility include discipline/adverse actions, grievances and appeals, harassment prevention and response, administrative furlough, and probationary/trial periods.

Previously, Ms. Slaughter worked as an Evaluator with the Office of Personnel Management, Dallas Field Office. As an Evaluator, she led and participated on audits and evaluations of agency HR operations covering the Human Capital Framework. Ms. Slaughter served as a Recruitment and Placement/Classification Team Lead at the Army Civilian Human Resources Agency at a Civilian Personnel Advisory Center. She also spent time working in Military Master Planning with the US Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) as a technical author on in house master plans and project manager for various master planning products.

Ms. Slaughter began her Federal career as a Department of the Army as a student hire at the USACE Southwestern Division Civilian Personnel Advisory Center in Fort Worth Texas. After finishing her graduate degree, she worked in a developmental program in all areas of civilian personnel with a focus on the labor and employee relations functional areas. Upon completion of the development program Ms. Slaughter worked as a Labor/Management Employee Relations Specialist for several years with an emphasis on training new human resources interns in employee relations.

Ms. Slaughter holds a Master's of Business Administration with an emphasis in Project Management.

