

Mr. Michael J. Wolf

Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA)

*Director, Collaboration and ADR Office;
ULP Settlement Official, Office of ALJs*

Biography:

Michael Wolf leads the FLRA's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program and serves as the FLRA's principal ADR practitioner. He helps federal agencies and unions prevent, manage, and resolve unfair labor practice litigation, negotiability petitions, arbitration exceptions, and other complex, significant, sensitive institutional workplace disputes. Mr. Wolf and his team also provide facilitation, training, and guidance to improve organizational effectiveness, quality of work life, engagement, and healthy, conflict-competent workplace culture. Mr. Wolf has held leadership roles in the Association for Conflict Resolution, the American Bar Association, state bar associations, and the Steering Committee of the Federal Interagency ADR Working Group. In addition to his current role at FLRA, Mr. Wolf teaches the graduate LMR course at Catholic University of America's Metropolitan School. He has been adjunct faculty at Pepperdine University Law School's Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution, University of Baltimore, and a guest instructor at other universities. Mr. Wolf's 10th publication, a chapter about Online Dispute Resolution and Negotiation, appears in the 2nd edition of Online Dispute Resolution: Theory and Practice: A Treatise on Technology and Dispute Resolution.
